

Barry Hashimoto

Department of International Studies

American University of Sharjah

P.O. Box 26666, Sharjah, United Arab Emirates

+971 (56) 913-3553 | bhashimoto@aus.edu | <https://barryhashimoto.com>

U.S. mailing address: 5559 Deer Run Road, P.O. Box 818, Langley, WA 98260, U.S.A.

Nationality and citizenship: U.S.A.

Education

- 2012 Emory University — Ph.D. in Political Science with integrated M.A.
Dissertation: “The Power and Politicized Expansion of the International Criminal Court.”
Concentration in international conflict, international political economy, quantitative methods. 3.56 GPA.
- 2006 Dartmouth College — A.B. in Government with Citation for Meritorious Performance.

Professional appointments

- 2015– American University of Sharjah — Assistant Professor, Department of International Studies.
- 2013–15 New York University Shanghai — Global Postdoctoral Fellow.
- 2012–13 New York University — Assistant Professor/Faculty Fellow, Department of Politics (non-tenure-track).

Publications

Barry Hashimoto. “Why do leaders accept the International Criminal Court’s jurisdiction? Theory and evidence.” Forthcoming at International Organization pending final revision.

Barry Hashimoto. 2017. “Poisoned chalice or just poison? Foreign-imposed regime change and peace.” Article Review Essay in H-Diplo / International Security Studies Forum, June, eds. Diane Labrosse and Seth Offenbach. June: 1–7.

Nigel Lo, Barry Hashimoto, and Dan Reiter. 2008. “Ensuring peace: foreign imposed regime change and postwar peace duration, 1914-2001.” International Organization 62(4): 717-36.

Work in progress

1. Barry Hashimoto and Stefan Priebe. “The wartime destruction of human capital and social relationships in the Balkans by mental trauma.” Under review at International Studies Quarterly.
2. Barry Hashimoto. “Making the International Criminal Court work: Hegemonic democracies and criminal deterrence in world politics since 1934.” Book manuscript.
3. Barry Hashimoto, Rameeshay Jabbar, AlJawhara AlJuwaied, Bakala Ahmed. “Testing theories of enforcement in international criminal law with a survey experiment and national of 36 non-democracies.” Manuscript in preparation.
4. Barry Hashimoto. “Do international courts guard the guardians? The economic and political consequences of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide.” Manuscript in preparation.
5. Barry Hashimoto. “Five theoretical perspectives on why states embrace the International Criminal Court. A systematic literature review.” Manuscript in preparation.
6. Barry Hashimoto. “Do institutions predict effectiveness in war? A machine-learning approach with a new cross-national data set of war-fighting effectiveness, 1914–2006.” Manuscript in preparation.

Honors and awards — last five years

- 2017 Coached UAE national team at the annual Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition in Washington, D.C. Won first place in Gulf Cooperation Council’s Jessup Friendly Competition in Kuwait City.
- 2014 Nomination for Best Paper in the Law and Courts division of American Political Science Association Annual Meeting & Exhibition in Chicago.
- 2014 Nomination for Walter Isard Award for Best Dissertation by the Peace Science Society.

Conference presentations — last five years

“The wartime destruction of human capital and social relationships in the Balkans by mental trauma,” Annual Conference of the Southern Political Science Association in 2017.

“Do institutions predict effectiveness in war? A machine-learning approach with battle-based data,” Annual Conference of the Southern Political Science Association in 2017.

“Do international courts guard the guardians? Economic and political consequences of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide,” American Political Science Association Annual Meeting & Exhibition in 2013, and at the European Political Science Association conference in 2012.

“Civil war, mental trauma and post-war human capital: Evidence from surveys of ex-Yugoslavs in eight countries,” presented at the European Political Science Association conference in 2012.

Internal research presentations — last five years

“Testing theories of enforcement in international criminal law with a survey experiment in an autocracy,” presented in the Department of International Studies at American University of Sharjah in 2017.

“Do international courts guard the guardians? Economic and political consequences of war crimes, crimes against humanity and genocide,” presented in the Seminar Series of the Department of International Studies at American University of Sharjah in 2016, and at NYU Shanghai in 2014.

“How civil war violence destroys human and social capital: Distinguishing mental trauma from other causal mechanisms with surveys from five Balkan states,” presented at the Social Sciences and Humanities Workshop at NYU Shanghai in 2015.

“Why do leaders accept the International Criminal Court’s jurisdiction? Theory and evidence,” presented at the Department of Politics of New York University in 2013.

Invited presentations — last five years

“Why do leaders accept the International Criminal Court’s jurisdiction? Theory and evidence,” presented in the Department of Political Science of Tulane University in 2013; the School of Government and Public Policy of University of Strathclyde in 2013; the Department of Political Science of Emory University in 2013; the Department of Political Science of Middle Tennessee State University in 2012; and the Center for Economic Research and Teaching (CIDE) in 2012.

Other peer-reviewed publications

Eric Groh, Paul Feingold, Barry Hashimoto, Lauren McDuffie, and Thomas Markel. “Temporal variations in pediatric trauma: Rationale for altered resource utilization.” Under review.

Paul Feingold, Nicholas Klemen, Mei Li Kwong, Barry Hashimoto, Udo Rudloff. 2017-18. “Adjuvant intraperitoneal chemotherapy for the treatment of colorectal cancer at risk for peritoneal carcinomatosis: A systematic review.” Accepted for publication at International Journal of Hyperthermia.

Paul Feingold, Michael J. Mina, Rachel M. Burke, Barry Hashimoto, Sara Gregg, Greg S. Martin, Kenneth Leeper, Timothy Buchman. 2016. “Long-term survival following in-hospital cardiac arrest: A matched cohort study.” Resuscitation, 99 (February), pp. 72-78.

Colyn Watkins, Paul Feingold, Barry Hashimoto, Laura Johnson, and Christopher Dente. 2012. “Nocturnal violence: Implications for resident trauma operative experiences.” The American Surgeon 78(6), 657-662.

Teaching

While at the American University of Sharjah:

- 2018 American foreign policy, scheduled for spring 2018
- 2018 Human Rights in World Politics, scheduled for spring 2018
- 2018 Public International Law, scheduled for spring 2018
- 2017 Public International Law (POL 305, fall)
- 2017 Introduction to International Relations (POL 202, fall)
- 2017 Moot Court (INS 350, fall) — new seminar course preparation for the 2018 Jessup competition
- 2017 Public International Law (POL 305, spring)
- 2017 Global Political Economy (INS 322, spring) — new seminar course preparation
- 2017 Introduction to International Relations (POL 202, spring)
- 2016 Human Rights in World Politics (INS 394, fall) — new lecture course preparation
- 2016 Moot Court (INS 350, fall) — new seminar course preparation for the 2017 Jessup competition
- 2016 Public International Law (POL 305, fall)
- 2016 Introduction to International Relations I (POL 202-1, spring)
- 2016 Introduction to International Relations II (POL 202-2, spring)
- 2016 Public International Law (POL 305, spring)
- 2015 Introduction to International Relations I (POL 202-1, fall) — new lecture course preparation
- 2015 Introduction to International Relations II (POL 202-2, fall) — new lecture course preparation
- 2015 Public International Law (POL 305, fall) — new lecture course preparation

While at New York University Shanghai:

- 2015 China and International Law — new course preparation

2014–15 Four sections of Global Perspectives on Society (CCSF-SHU 101 and 102) — team-taught to all members of the Class of 2018 with Jeffrey S. Lehman, Catherine MacKinnon, Kwame Anthony Appiah and 12 postdoctoral fellows. Assisted in updates for the second offering.

2013–14 Four sections of Global Perspectives on Society (CCSF-SHU 101 and 102) — team-taught to all members of the Class of 2017 with Jeffrey S. Lehman, Paul Romer, Thomas Bender, David Hollinger and 12 postdoctoral fellows. Assisted the preparation of this year-long lecture and seminar course for its initial offering.

While at New York University:

2012-3 Human Rights (POL-UA 994.02) — new seminar course preparation

While at Emory University:

2012 International Law (POLS 312) — new lecture course preparation

2011 Civil Wars (POLS 490R-006) — new seminar course preparation

2010 Global Human Rights (POLS 317) — co-taught with David Davis

2009 Introduction to American Politics (POLS 100) — co-taught with Alan Abramowitz

2008 Introduction to International Relations (POLS 110) — co-taught with James Larry Taulbee

Competitive internal grants

2017 Faculty Research Travel Grant, American University of Sharjah, $4,085.

2016 International Conference Travel Grant, American University of Sharjah, $3,000.

2013–15 Postdoctoral research funding, NYU Shanghai, $8,000.

2012–13 Postdoctoral research funding, New York University College of Arts & Science, $8,000.

2009–12 Doctoral research funding, Emory University's Laney Graduate School $4,000.

2009 Doctoral training funding from Emory University's Laney Graduate School to enroll in the certificate-granting Institute for Qualitative and Multi-Method Research at the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University, $2,280.

2007 Doctoral training funding from the Laney Graduate School of Emory University to enroll in the certificate-granting Inter-University Consortium of Political and Social Research Summer Program in Quantitative Methods at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, $2,800.

2006–8 Doctoral research funding from the Department of Political Science at Emory University to catalogue international armistices, ceasefires and peace treaties since 1914, $1,000.

2006–11 Merit Scholarship ($90,000) and Tuition Scholarship ($203,250) from Emory University.

University service and research assistance

While at the American University of Sharjah:

2017 Sheikh Khalifa Undergraduate Scholarship Award Committee, College of Arts and Sciences.

2017 Chair of Events Committee in the Department of International Studies. Arranged and chaired research presentations by Melina Platas, J. Andrew Harris and Anne Regourd.

2016–17 Coach and advisor of the Moot Court Team. Lead study tours to Kuwait City and Washington, D.C. for international moot court competitions.

2016–17 Faculty Search Committee for Political Science, Department of International Studies.

2015–17 Advisor to International Studies Majors – 20 advisees.

2016 Faculty observer and oral rounds judge for undergraduate delegation to 2016 International Criminal Court Moot Court Competition in The Hague.

2015–16 Senior Seminar Capstone Project Referee and Grader, Department of International Studies.

While at New York University Shanghai:

2014–15 Creator and organizer of the Faculty Workshop in the Social Sciences and Humanities.

2013–14 Academic advisor for 25 members of the inaugural Class of 2017.

While at Emory University:

2011–12 Honors thesis committee reader for Mia Ozegovic, B.A. with Highest Honors.

2010–11 Researcher for Dan Reiter. Created data on wartime deployments for Reiter, A.C. Stam and M. Horowitz.

2009 Researcher for Kyle Beardsley. Created data on U.N. Security Council resolutions.

2008 Researcher for Hubert Tworzecki. Created data on campaign media strategies in Poland.

2008 Researcher for Beth Reingold. Co-managed revisions to a book on female legislators in Congress.

2006–7 Researcher for Dan Reiter. Wrote case studies of military innovation in World War II's Pacific theater and updated Correlates of War data on interstate wars.

Disciplinary service

Journal referee for International Organization, American Journal of Political Science, Conflict Management and Peace Science.

- 2017 Panel chair of “International norms and regimes” in the Global Issues, International Political Economy, and Human Rights division of the Southern Political Science Association conference in New Orleans.
- 2017 Panel discussant of “International conflict processes” in the Conflict and Security division of the Southern Political Science Association conference in New Orleans.
- 2017 Panel chair of “From violence to peace” in the Conflict and Security division of the Southern Political Science Association conference in New Orleans.
- 2016 Shui On Land’s invitee to the annual convention of the Urban Land Institute–Asia Pacific in Shanghai.
- 2012 Panel chair of “Violence against civilians” at European Political Science Association conference in Berlin.

Competitive internal grants for research or training in research methodology

- 2017 Faculty Research Travel Grant, American University of Sharjah, $4,085.
- 2016 International Conference Travel Grant, American University of Sharjah, $3,000.
- 2013–15 Postdoctoral research funding, NYU Shanghai, $8,000.
- 2012–13 Postdoctoral research funding, New York University College of Arts & Science, $8,000.
- 2009–12 Doctoral research funding, Emory University’s Laney Graduate School $4,000.
- 2009 Doctoral training funding from Emory University’s Laney Graduate School to enroll in the certificate-granting Institute for Qualitative and Multi-Method Research at the Maxwell School of Citizenship and Public Affairs at Syracuse University, $2,280.
- 2007 Doctoral training funding from the Laney Graduate School of Emory University to enroll in the certificate-granting Inter-University Consortium of Political and Social Research Summer Program in Quantitative Methods at the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, $2,800.
- 2006–8 Doctoral research funding from the Department of Political Science at Emory University to catalogue international armistices, ceasefires and peace treaties since 1914, $1,000.
- 2006–11 Merit Scholarship ($90,000) and Tuition Scholarship ($203,250) from Emory University.

References

Dan Reiter, Samuel Candler Dobbs Professor of Political Science
Emory University, Department of Political Science
Tarbutton Hall, 1555 Dickey Dr., Atlanta, GA 30322
dreiter@emory.edu, +1 (404) 727-6572

Eric R. Reinhardt, Winship Distinguished Research Professor of Political Science
Emory University, Department of Political Science
Tarbutton Hall, 1555 Dickey Dr., Atlanta, GA 30322
erein@emory.edu, +1 (404) 727-4977

Jeffrey K. Staton, Associate Professor
Emory University, Department of Political Science
Tarbutton Hall, 1555 Dickey Dr., Atlanta, GA 30322
jkstato@emory.edu, +1 (404) 727-6559

James N. Sater, Professor of Political Science
American University of Sharjah, Department of International Studies
P.O. Box 2666, Sharjah, United Arab Emirates
jsater@aus.edu, +971 (6) 515-2815

Teaching-specific references

Jeffrey S. Lehman, Vice Chancellor and Professor of Law
NYU Shanghai
1555 Century Avenue, Pudong, Shanghai, China 200122
jls569@nyu.edu, +1 (313) 483-3080

Kevin W. Gray, Visiting Scholar in the Faculty of Law at the University of Toronto
78 Queen’s Park, Toronto, ON M5S 2C5
kevinwgray@gmail.com, +1 (857) 919-9614